

Short biography

Elisabeth Freyhoff

Since the 2024/25 season the German-Georgian soprano has been a member of the opera studio at Deutsche Oper am Rhein.

In 2023 she debuted as Serpetta (La finta giardiniera) at the Theater an der Wien.

During her studies at the Theaterakademie August Everding and HMT Munich, she took on roles such as Gwen (4.48 Psychosis), Baronin (The Poacher), and Pamina (The Magic Flute).

She also made several guest appearances at the Münchner Kammeroper, most recently as Susanna (The Marriage of Figaro).

Elisabeth has performed at festivals like MelosLogos and the International Kalamata Music Days and has given recitals at the Château de Pourtalès, the Munich Philharmonie im Gasteig and the Bremer Glocke.

She received scholarships from the Studienstiftung des deutschen Volkes and the Deutscher Bühnenverein.

